

Brief

Trócaire will be holding a special church collection this weekend (November 6 & 7) to help alleviate the humanitarian crisis in East Africa. The Irish Catholic Bishops noted with deep concern that up to 30 million people in the region are currently are facing life-threatening food shortages.

Here are some subjected Social media posts for your parish:

Twitter:

This weekend (Nov 6 & 7), we will be holding an emergency collection to help support @Trócaire in its work to alleviate the humanitarian crisis in East Africa.

The @CatholicBishops noted with deep concern the increase in the number of people in East Africa who are threatened by #Covid-19, #conflict and #climatechange

The emergency appeal calls for support for the people in Ethiopia, Somalia, South Sudan and South Kordofan where up to 30 million people are currently facing life-threatening food shortages.

We pray for the emergency appeal with Psalm 146, "The LORD keeps faith forever, secures justice for the oppressed, gives food to the hungry." @Trocaire @CatholicBishops

Please donate what you can this weekend to help save lives.

Facebook:

This weekend (Nov 6 & 7), we will be holding an emergency collection to help support Trócaire in its work to alleviate the humanitarian crisis in East Africa.

The Irish Catholic Bishops noted with deep concern the increase in the number of people in East Africa who are threatened by Covid-19, conflict and climate change.

The emergency appeal calls for support for the people in Ethiopia, Somalia, South Sudan and South Kordofan where up to 30 million people are currently facing life-threatening food shortages.

We pray for the emergency appeal with Psalm 146, "The LORD keeps faith forever, secures justice for the oppressed, gives food to the hungry."

Please donate what you can this weekend to help save lives.